CLARIFICATION ON THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN ROYAL EXCHANGE PLC ("THE COMPANY") AND ROYAL EXCHANGE PRUDENTIAL LIFE PLC (REPRU) PURSUANT TO RULE 17, PART II (ISSUER'S RULES) OF THE NIGERIA EXCHANGE LIMITED RULE BOOK 2015

Royal Exchange Plc (Royal Exchange or the Company) has become aware of public reports regarding the revocation of Royal Exchange Prudential Life Plc's operating licence by the National Insurance Commission ("NAICOM") for failing to meet the applicable minimum capital requirement.

Royal Exchange considers it important to clarify its relationship with Royal Exchange Prudential Life Plc (REPRU) and to assure its shareholders, investors, customers and the general public that REPRU is no longer a subsidiary of, or under the ownership or control of Royal Exchange.

Although REPRU bears the Royal Exchange name and was previously part of the Royal Exchange Group, the Company ceased to own or control REPRU following the disposal of its interest in the insurance company in August 2022. Accordingly, REPRU is not a subsidiary or affiliate of Royal Exchange and its current financial position, operations, regulatory status and obligations are separate and distinct from those of Royal Exchange

Consequently, the revocation of REPRU's operating licence by NAICOM does not in any way affect the financial position, operations, assets, liabilities, regulatory standing or ongoing business of Royal Exchange. The regulatory action against REPRU is specific to REPRU.
